“Ante Up” for a Good Cause at Hope for the Animals’ 2nd Annual Casino Night

Don't Miss this “Fun”-Raising Event to Benefit Local Homeless and Critically Injured Cats & Dogs

Langhorne, PA – If a night of casino-style games, auctions, live entertainment, a buffet and drinks sounds like a great way to spend an evening, all while helping to raise funds for cats and dogs in need, then join “Hope for the Animals” for their 2nd Annual Casino Night and Auction. The event will benefit Boris & Natasha’s Fund, which supplements the cost of emergency veterinary care for area homeless and rescued dogs and cats. Through the work of specialty and emergency veterinarians at the Center for Animal Referral and Emergency Services (CARES) in Langhorne, and other area veterinarians, the lives of 30+ animals have been saved; each life-saving procedure costing up to thousands of dollars.

Hope for the Animals is a non-profit, no-kill, animal rescue organization serving Bucks County, PA and the surrounding areas. Their mission is to find homes for the area’s many unwanted cats and dogs, to supplement the cost of emergency veterinary care through “Boris & Natasha’s Fund” for homeless, foster and adopted cats and dogs and to eventually build the first no-kill shelter in Bucks County. Boris & Natasha’s Fund is administered in partnership with the Center for Animal Referral and Emergency Services (CARES), in Langhorne, PA, as well as several local veterinary clinics.

The 2nd Annual Casino Night & Auction will be a night to remember with:

- Blackjack, Craps, Roulette and Poker
- Full Buffet Dinner and Cash Bar
- Silent and Live Auction, Including a Live Bachelor Auction Featuring Some of Bucks County’s Most Eligible Bachelors
- Live Entertainment and Dancing
